FEBRUARY 2015

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I am disappointed to report to those of you who did not attend the Open Council meeting in January that as we begin the new year, there have been reports of vandalism throughout our complex. Some people have found that their unlocked cars have been gone through, although there have been no reports of anything being stolen...YET. There have been reports of graffiti in some of the elevators even though some have cameras. That shows how brazen these actors are. So, the message is to lock your cars and become more vigilant of our surroundings. If you see anything that looks suspicious please call the guards or the office. If need be, call the police.

It is sad that the changing times has brought us to this point, but hopefully through being alert and looking out for our neighbors, this will be a short lived condition.

Respectfully,

Bob Spri

MANAGER'S CORNER

February

This is a special month because of "Valentine's Day". Although we should do this every day of our lives, Valentine's Day is the day to let your loved one know how much you care for them.

Welcome

Now that all of our winter owners and renters are here, I ask that you all take time to review the rules that we have here at Sea Towers. Please remember that as owners, you are responsible for the actions of your guests and renters. Please inform your guests of the rules that we have here at Sea Towers. The best way of enforcement of Rules and Regulations is self-enforcement. In a gated community the size of Sea Towers, rules are a necessity in order for the type of living that you all enjoy.

Contractors

Please be sure to remind any Service people that you may have in your units that they need to park in the spots designated for Service for your building. These spots are clearly labeled. If they are driving a truck, they need to be off property by 5:30 PM. Any trucks that are still on property after 5:30 PM are subject to having their vehicle towed without notice.

Alterations

Another reminder to those of you who are not aware, if you are planning any alteration in your unit, an Alteration Form must be completed, notarized and approved before any alterations can begin. Alteration Forms are readily available in the Administration Office. We also have notaries on staff to aid you in the notarization of the Alteration Form. Don't forget that it is your responsibility as owners to make sure your contractor or service person obtains any applicable permits that are required for the work that you are having done. I suggest that you ask your contractor where the permit is before any work is begun. It must be adequately displayed to be seen from the outside of your home. (The alteration Form mentioned above is not a permit).

Gate House

It is always a good idea to call the Guards with any information regarding Guests or Contractors/Services that you may have coming to see you. When calling the Guards, please remember to give the Officers your first and last name, your unit number, and your phone number as well as the first and last names of your guest or the name of the Service Company that you are expecting. Keep in mind that the Guards are trying to write all of this information down as you are giving it to them along with taking care of any vehicles that are entering the property.

Rentals

When you as unit owners rent your unit, remember that the use of the amenities goes with the unit. This means that if you rent your unit, your renter gets full rights to the amenities, and you give up your right to use them. This includes your gate decal and South Gate access cards.

Sales and Leases

Please remember, any pending lease or sale applications must be completed and turned into the Office not less than 20 business days prior to desired occupancy. This allows the Office staff plenty of time to do necessary paperwork for approval.

Traffic Signs

The One-Way signs throughout the complex are there not only to help control traffic flow, but also for safety. Bicycle riders must obey the traffic signs as well as automobiles.

Remember It takes all of us working together to keep Sea Towers as nice as it is. Thank you for your continued co-operation.

Sincerely,

Arthur Penny

Sea Towers Social News

By: Cathylee Kjellstrand-Granucci, M.A.

CLUBHOUSE NEWS

The Clubhouse had a very nice, well attended, New Years Eve Party on Wednesday, December 31st. Sea Towers brought in the New Years 2015 with a bang. The band played all night providing excellent dance music and entertainment. We even had a guest appearance from the New Year's Eve Baby, as the clock tolled 12 midnight. What a fantastic way to bring in the New Year with fellow Sea Tower residents their families and friends.

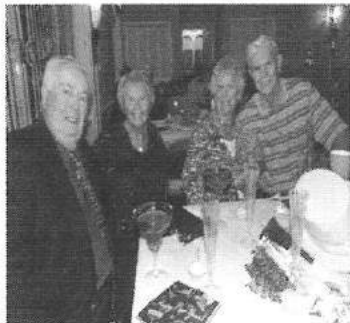

Gerry & Kathy Arnold

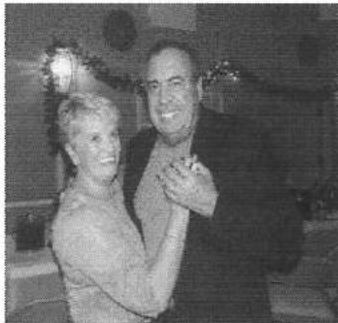

Sea Towers residents brought to the Clubhouse excellent appetizers to share. There was an abundance of fresh shrimp, sandwiches, vegetarian specialties, miscellaneous trays full of cracker and cheeses, and delicious desserts. At midnight Sea Towers broke open two cases of Champagne. Happy New Year Sea Towers ~ 2015. Wishing you ALL a blessed, healthy, happy and peaceful year.

Marilyn Spicer, Ida Kaarsgaren & Jim Glynn at the refreshment table.

Jerry & Sharon Munro and Rose & Ed Radtke

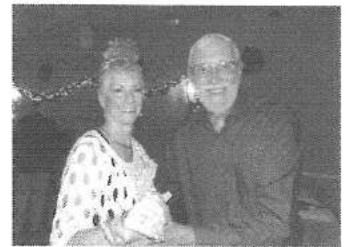

Elaine & Roger Duval

Our sponsors for the Ice Cream Social this January were Arcadia Home Care and Staffing and Edward Jones. A special thank you to the Central Social Committee for all their work and contributions during the Elegante Junque Sale and especially Dee Gilbride who coordinated this event ~ we really appreciate you. Thank you to all the buildings that participated in putting baskets together.

The clubhouse is very active this month with the Follies Rehearsals in full gear. It is a pleasure to see our Sea Tower residents come out and share their talents to make an entertaining show (see Ad in this insert). Together we will put on an awesome Follies this year. Thank you Rose Radtke and all those involved for all your support, direction and encouragement in making the Follies the success it will be.

Nice dancing at the New Years Eve Event.

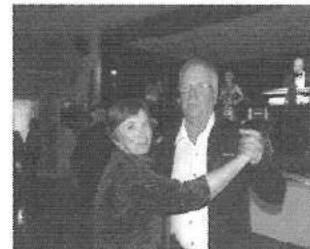

Happy New Year!

Splendid picture Marilyn!

Ed & Michele Elliott having a New Year's Eve dance.

Irene & Eric Moore enjoyed dancing to the band.

All smiles from Eleanor McKiernan and friends.

Words to live by.....

God Bless our military, veterans, their families, and Sea Towers!

Lexington Towers

It's February already! January just zipped by us and pushed us into St. Valentine's month. This is the month for 'LOVE'. As our Jolly Fat Boy sits in the sun getting a good tan, that little kid called CUPID is running around shooting his arrows hoping to twang someone with his "love" arrows. If you are not in the running for a commitment, "run" like hell.

One couple, Bless their soles, Betty and Tim, died in a car accident on the eve of their wedding. In Heaven, they ask St. Peter if they can still be married. "Well, let me find out if this is possible. Stay here and I will be right back."

Six months pass and Peter returns. "Yes we can do this for you."

The couple asks, "Well, as we have spent so much time together waiting for your answer, we need to know that if things don't work out, is there a possibility that we can be divorced?"

To which St. Peter answers, "It took me six months to find a priest up here, how long do you think it will take me to find a lawyer?"

Last month on the 18th Lexington Towers had a Fork & Cork get together in the Clubhouse auditorium. Residents brought a bottle of wine for a Wine Tasting Session and each resident brought an appetizer. Need I say anything else about our food? All had a great time and are looking forward to our next gathering. Don't forget- Renters, not only residents are more than welcome!

This month I would like you to meet Claire McDonough. If you perform in the Follies, you know Claire. She has been the choreographer for the last 12 years. The Director of the Follies made a wise chose when she asked Claire to work with her. Claire has a knack of putting together people with songs. There is no one who sounds bad or bombs at their act. Claire calmly puts together the acts with patience and understanding.

Claire was born and raised in Vermont. She is the mother of three sons, four Grandchildren and 3 Great Grandchildren. Claire worked as an Administrative officer in Immigration. She took ten years off to raise her family before she finally retired. When she returns to Vermont for the summer months, she puts in a forty hour work week in her sisters' Market/Snack Bar/Bakery on Lake Champlain. Claire has two sisters and one brother. If we could bottle her energy, someone would make a fortune. Not only is she an asset to our building, but the Follies would be lost without her.

Till next month, my final thought "I've found the key to happiness, I stay away from IDIOTS!

Jefferson House The Oldest and The Best

Yes, yet another month has gone by and we are all asking ourselves where is the time going? I hope everyone had a wonderful New Year and were able to stay up past midnight. Joe and I barely made it but we did.

Thank you to everyone who helped take down all our Christmas decorations and put them away for another year. Many showed up so we were down in record time. Thanks to Dianne Howe for the coffee and donuts and her own personal yummy treats.

Shirl and Ted Wilson were blessed with two families visiting over Christmas. Linda, Leah and Katie flew in from MI to spend a few days. The girls walked/ran on the beach, went for mani/pedicures, did SOME shopping, swimming, shuffleboard and board games. Jen, Scott, Wilson and Brant also from MI, played basketball, shuffleboard, putt putt, tennis, hung at the pool, played board games and baked cookies for Santa. After singing Happy Birthday to Jesus, everyone ate turkey, stuffing and other fixins. Thank you God!

Joe and Cathy Wos' daughter Pattie and grandson Christopher came from IL for a quick visit. Gramps and Christopher had the pool to themselves for a few days and were off to Epcot! They had a blast!!!

Right after New Years I think everyone had visitors because the pools had "standing room only". There were no empty chairs, and the pool was filled.

Elaine and Roger Duval bring their adorable granddaughter to the pool and she loves it. She was in the shower singing and dancing to the "Hokey Pokey". How adorable is that???

Welcome back to all our neighbors who made it back down here before the snow. I'm glad Marge Sansone was able to get back down here before the ice and snow and very cold weather. I'm sure she missed her time on the tennis courts.

Keep your eyes on the bulletin board for upcoming events because there sure are a lot of them. I'm sure we will hear how fabulous our Sale went because the Social Committee always does an outstanding job. Thank you to all who help and donate their wares to be sold.

So until next month remember to "Chat with the Cat"

Washington Towers

The busy holidays are behind us, as we hope is the cool weather we had mid-January. At least we didn't get the awful sub-zero weather our northern friends & families had.

Happy February Birthdays to Steve Jones, Yvonne Harrington, Michael Burgess, Helen Carnes, Ana Gil, Cidalia Correia & Carol Beyus.

My sweetie Dennis and I celebrated our 26th wedding anniversary on January 21st.

January 22nd the Washingtonians partied on the deck all dressed up in our favorite hats. A prize for the best chapeau will be published next month. It was National Cheese Day so lots of cheese dishes were enjoyed by all. Reminder to pay the dues of $7.00 per person to our social chairman Gerry Arnold, treasurer Karen Shaw, or your floor representative (see the list on the bulletin board for each floor).

Brenda Reardon has had loads of company. Half of her family came down over Christmas & New Year's ~ 4 of her daughters, 4 grandchildren, her youngest son, her sister and 2 "outlaws." She expects the other half will come next year! That's what happens when you have such a big, wonderful family.

Bob and Joan Leichtfuss entertained Bob's niece, husband, and great niece from Milwaukee, WI. They enjoyed the Florida Aquarium, the shops at John's Pass boardwalk and the seafood at several yummy restaurants.

Kathy and Gerry Arnold also played host to family and friends. Brothers, cousins, and friends were welcomed for some fun times.

Please drop a note or call me with any tidbits for next month's column.

Welcome back to our residents and guests. We hope your New Year started out on the right foot. Just a quick reminder to let you know that we are getting back on track with our outstanding social activities. February may be the shortest month, however, it is packed with a lot to do.

I have noticed that our "natural athletes" are heading for the golf courses, tennis courts and even the pool room. I'm not sure if I should be including the card players. Toting cue sticks, tennis rackets and/or golf clubs are some of our neighbors: Mr./Ms./Mrs. Carroll, Smith, Burke, Robertson, Morelli, Zentmeyer, Youngblood, Allen, Fronduti, Doyle, Harsch, Saenz and a few more I may have missed. Get out there and show them how a winner plays.

Keep an eye open for events that are listed on the bulletin board. Our annual pot luck dinner will take place before February's house meeting. Joe Pusateri has volunteered to light the grill for the 1st Friday cookouts. Cocktail parties and a general patio get together includes BYOB and bring a snack.

Let's try to have a Valentine's outing. This is the month of kisses, hearts and hugs. Remember that President's Day is coming, as well as the beginning of the Easter season.

Burke's entertained a friend, Joyce Redlin, who dodged the cold temps in Ohio. B. and K., Adam and I know Joyce from all of our days at Kent State University.

Pay your social dues! And have a wonderful holiday no matter which one you choose to celebrate.

Until next time,

Concord Towers
Where the Good Times Begin

Happy February everyone. Unfortunately, Ronnie and I are back in Philly, away from the gorgeous Florida sunshine. At least you folks can enjoy the weather. This month promises to be a busy one. I'm sure that Fran has a luncheon or other activity planned for us to honor Valentines Day. Give your sweeties a hug or a fond thought.

Ash Wednesday comes early this year (February 18). I wonder what I can give up for Lent this year. I tried beer one year and lasted two whole days.

Last month our building held a combination potluck dinner and meeting. I have always contended that Columbia Towers cooks are the best and they proved that honor again. Our meeting was quite informative again and shows us how lucky we are to have the hardworking trio of governors at the helm.

Your floor reps should have gotten to everyone by now to collect the $5.00 per person for our social committee. If you were not contacted you may give the money to Fran Keidel.

We had a great game of trivial pursuit in January. We held the event at the beach house with three teams of 3. It was a fun filled contest and was close up to the very end when the team of Buz Murphy, Ed Elliott and Bruce Bennett managed to squeak out a victory over the teams of Bruce Tillotson, Blaine Betts, Michelle Elliott and Joe Egan, Celeste Bennett and John Snekser

Mike and Susan Meltzer took an extended trip to Las Vegas, their hometown. The 23-day trip included seeing relatives and friends there and in Los Angeles. They managed a New Year eve celebration just for two at the Texas Station Casino.

Watch the bulletin board for a signup sheet for the ladies pancake breakfast. This is given by the men of Columbia Towers where we cook and serve the ladies on that day. It's fun for the guys and a treat for the women.

As always, I need your input for this column. I just realized that I've been saying this for almost 11 years. Keep them cards and letters coming.

Well finally, thanks to Lois Gargano, I have something to write about this month! She was nice enough to even bring it to me! She knows more than I do and has only returned recently from her home in Bethesda, MD. Her granddaughter, Michelle and great granddaughter, Tacoah (age 6) spent 10 days with Lois at Sea Towers, which they both love. They both enjoyed the beach and the pool.

Lois also wanted me to welcome back Joyce Lawson and Nancy Gavazzi. They were a few of our later arrivals this year. I knew Nancy was back when I saw her in the laundry room. Although, we live on the same floor that was the first I had seen her and she told me she had been here 2 weeks!! They sure can't call me a roving reporter! I must admit I don't know that many people here anymore.

Lois used to be very active in the clubhouse. She would bake the hams, and was the only one who knew how to cut up the chickens properly. Most of us that have been here for 16 or so years know Lois. A very sociable lady!

I hear via Stan Bowers that he and his lovely wife, Carol, are "moving up". In fact they are going to be our neighbors. They are lucky to have such quiet people living next to them.

Just a reminder gentlemen, the 14th is the day you give the special lady in your life, candy and/or roses!!

Now for just a little humor: (You'll think you're a genius, if you sometimes feel a little stupid) and these are actual quotes from some famous people.

"Outside of the killings, Washington has the lowest crime rate in the USA"

"I've never had major knee surgery on any other part of my body"

"The low down scoundrel deserves to be kicked to death by a jackass and I'm just the one to do it"

Lastly, I must stop saying "How stupid can you be", as some people are taking it as a challenge".

I must remind you to drink responsibly. According to chemistry alcohol is a solution! Now you know how to solve your problems! Until next time, remember that it's not about age it's about attitude. (Or should that be altitude?)

I need some roving reporters!!! HELP!

Colonial Court

February has arrived and activities are in full swing here at Sea Towers and at Colonial Court.

A big thank you to our governors, Jack McCarrie, Mary Lou Murphy, and Cindy Hazlett for volunteering for another year of service. You do a great job and we appreciate your time and commitment to our great building!

The Hazletts had a wonderful visit for a week in January with their daughter, son-in-law, granddaughter and great granddaughter. Cindy said they packed in so many activities. Daughter, Michelle, said that she wasn't looking forward to returning to the cold Ohio winter.

The Bross family reports that they have had a busy year. They attended their grandson's graduation from Flagler College and wedding in Charleston. A family reunion was also part of their travels.

Welcome to Charlotte and Jim Merrill from Portland, Maine. They shared that they are really enjoying the quiet atmosphere of Colonial Court.

Colonial Court ladies had their January luncheon at E & E Steakhouse in Largo. Everyone attending enjoyed their meals and time spent chatting with each other. Check the bulletin board for information on the February luncheon.

If you haven't already paid your Colonial Court social dues of $5.00 per resident, please see Eleanor McCarrie. These funds are used to purchase plants for the flower boxes and for social activities at our building. A patio breakfast is in the coming plans. Check our bulletin board for further details.

The McCarries and the Biddles enjoyed an eastern Caribbean cruise during January, along with many other residents of Sea Towers. We had a relaxing, laid back vacation with plenty of warm weather, good food and great company.

Happy Groundhog Day! Happy Valentine's Day! Happy Presidents' Day!

FROM THE ADMINISTRATION OFFICE

As many of you are aware we installed a new system at the south gate which allows us to have greater control of who has access to the property through that gate. As a result unit owners who rent their units out will have their cards deactivated during the duration of the lease just the same as their entrance gate decals. Tenants who would like a south gate card can request one from the administration office. However a $100.00 deposit is required from the tenant, once the lease expires and the card is returned to the administration office a refund check will be issued and mailed to the tenant at the address submitted to our office. Also, once the tenant's south gate card is returned or the lease expires their card will be deactivated and the owner's card will be reactivated.

Please stop in the office to change any of your personal information. It is very important that we have your current mailing address as well as phone numbers and emergency contact information. And a working copy of your unit keys.

Thank you
Joy, Laurie & Lucy

Sea Towers' Sirens
Red Hat Society Chapter

The Sea Towers Sirens Annual Business meeting was held at the Clubhouse on Sunday January 11, 2015 with 24 members in attendance. Welcomed into the club were new members Sharyn Janz, Kathy Law and Sue Wilson. An auction of Red Hat items added $32.00 to our treasury along with $30.00 from our 50/50 raffle.

Our 2015 outings are listed below:

- February – Concord – Sharyn Janz & Tina Czerwinski
- March – Washington – Arlene Hansen
- April – Continental – Carol Colvin (annual Picnic)
- May – Lexington – Sue Wilson

- November – Heritage – Kathy Law (Taylor & McKenzie helpers)
- December – Lexington – Claire McDonough & Rose Radtke (Christmas)
- January 10, 2016 - Annual Meeting – Board / Committee members.

Building Contacts:

- Columbia – Gloria Babineau 397-8089
- Concord – Jean Cuttita 391-0401
- Continental – Sharon Munro 394-2955
- Lexington – Lois Wren 399-1481
- Heritage – Pat Doyle 391-0957
- Washington – Brenda Reardon 391-3624

Our next outing will be on February 19th at 1:00 at the Brown Boxer Restaurant 15000 Madeira Way, corner of Gulf Blvd. Reservation can be made by calling your building contact or Tina Czerwinski 289-9256 by February 17th.

GATE ACCESS PROCEDURES

If you are new to Sea Towers welcome, if you are a returning to Sea Towers welcome back. The following are some tips to insure your guests or contractor get through the gate quickly.

1. Please call the gate no more than twelve hours prior to your guest/contractor arrival. The gate is not set up for any further advance notice then twelve hours.
2. Please do not walk up to the gatehouse, to request a guest or contractor entry, the gate at Sea Towers is not a pedestrian gate, it is not safe. In addition, the officers must direct their attention to the entry lanes and the phone, before they can speak to you as a walk up.
3. If you are an owner or renter, not in your decaled vehicle. Please have your I.D. ready to show the officer.
4. Please let your guests or contractor know your building name, unit number, and your name. This will speed up their entry.
5. Let the officer know if the person you are expecting is a contractor or guest. If they are a contractor, what are they doing i.e. maid/cleaning service, providing an estimate for work, A/C or water heater install, painting, carpeting, etc.
6. It is not necessary to let the officer know what type of vehicle your guests or contractor is in.
7. Security officers are not allowed to hold, accept or sign for keys, mail, luggage, deliveries, etc.
